

Photographic Consent Form
To be completed by all members

Occasionally, we may take photographs or commission external companies to photograph or film on our behalf, members participating at our competitions and events. These may be used by ourselves for promotional purposes, such as displays, scrapbooks, newsletters, on the website, social networking sites or in publications. The event, competition or activity may also be visited by the media who will take photographs or film footage which may lead to members appearing in these images in local or national newspapers, or on televised or internet news programs.

Please complete the details below to indicate your consent to be photographed and for these images/films or audio to be used by Clubs, the Lancashire Federation and the National Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs. Parents, guardians, carers or legal representatives please sign for people under the age of 18.
